DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-8 are allowed.

The prior art neither teaches nor fairly suggests a method for recording a multimedia presentation, comprising the steps of: a) capturing a motion image of a scene with a digital video camera adapted to record both motion and higher resolution still images, the higher resolution still images having at least four times the resolution of the motion images; b) compressing the motion image and storing the compressed motion image in the digital video camera; c) periodically during the capture of the motion image, capturing a higher resolution still image of the scene; d) storing the still image in the digital video camera; and e) creating and storing a link in the digital video camera between the still image and a corresponding frame in the compressed motion image at the time that the still image is captured.
